TEN TIPS TO WRITING A GREAT ESSAY

Ready to get writing? Here are my ten best tips for having fun while writing an essay that earns you the top grade!

by Joe Bunting

1 YOUR ESSAY IS JUST A SHORT STORY

Every story is about conflict and change, and the truth is that essays are about conflict and change, too! The difference is that in an essay, the conflict is between different ideas, the change is in the way we should perceive those ideas.

2 ASK YOURSELF, "HOW CAN I HAVE THE MOST FUN WRITING THIS?"

Here's the secret trick: One of the interesting things about your subconscious is that it will answer any question you ask yourself. So whenever you feel unmotivated to write your essay, ask yourself the following question: "How much fun can I have writing this?"

3 ASK YOURSELF, "WHAT SURPRISES ME ABOUT THIS SUBJECT?"

The temptation, when you're writing an essay, is to write what you think your teacher or professor wants to read. Don't do this. Instead, ask yourself, "What do I find interesting about this subject? What surprises me?"

4 OVERWHELMED? JUST WRITE FIVE ORIGINAL SENTENCES.

The standard three-point essay is really made up of just five original sentences, surrounded by supporting paragraphs that back up those five sentences. If you're feeling overwhelmed, just write five sentences.

5 BE SOURCE HEAVY

Instead of putting the main focus on writing well, it instead forces you to research well, which some students find easier.

6 WRITE THE BODY FIRST, THE INTRODUCTION SECOND, AND THE CONCLUSION LAST.

Try writing your introduction last, giving yourself the body of the paper to figure out the main point of your essay.

7 MOST ESSAYS ANSWER THE QUESTION, "WHAT?" GOOD ESSAYS ANSWER THE "WHY?" THE BEST ESSAYS ANSWER THE "HOW?"

If you get stuck trying to make your argument, or you're struggling to reach the required word count, try focusing on the question, "How?"

8 DON'T BE AFRAID TO JUMP AROUND.

Give yourself the freedom to write as if you're circling around your topic rather than making a single, straightforward argument. Then, when you edit, you can make sure everything lines up correctly.

9 SOME WORDS AND PHRASES YOU DON'T WANT TO USE.

- You
- Clichés
- Some
- That
- Things
- To Be verbs

10 IT'S OKAY TO USE WIKIPEDIA, IF...

Here are two ways you can use Wikipedia in your essay writing:

- Background research
- Finding sources

5 Easy Steps for Essay Writing

Throughout your life at college, you will always come across a professor who likes to give out topics for essay writing. This can't be helped except do the assignment yourself and hope to impress the professor with your writing prowess. However, writing an essay is not a simple feat. In fact, when you think about it, your essay grade could make or break your academic career.

Essays may seem to be just an assignment to some. However, essay writing is more than just that. It is a great tool that every person should learn how to use correctly. An essay is an avenue where you can conveniently have your voice heard by an important audience. More than just making it as a requirement, you can use it to impress another person, like your teacher, and show him how wonderful your mind is. Use it as communication tool to which you can freely express whatever you felt towards a certain idea. Nobody can steal your thoughts nor influence your ideas towards something. Writing an essay is the best way to showcase your knowledge and make other people see how interesting you are as a person.

Learning how to write the perfect essays may seem tough. This is true but not if you know the basic steps for essay writing. Having a guide on how to do them right will somehow ease you out of such a dilemma. Mastering just six easy steps will make you write like a pro and having commendable essays will be very achievable.

1. Determine the context of the essay. This basically means to identify the heart of the essay. One way to ace this task is by determining parameters for the topic. You can start by deciding who the audience should be, will it just be the teacher or will it be directed towards a specific populace like the children, perhaps?

Another parameter to define is the format of the essay. You should know the rules set by the teacher and follow them to get the best grade. Usually, the professor will provide you the topic but it is your job to pinpoint the focus of your essay. If in case you will be given the freedom to write for your choice of topic, make sure to have one that you are passionate about. Choose a topic that fires you up, so to speak. If you have a topic which you are so passionate about, doing the rest of the essay will be a breeze. You will not have difficult time learning about the nature of the topic nor have a hard time composing your sentences. This will give you a lot of advantages especially when you are still at odds on what to write about.

Another key to having the best topics for any essay is by determining which side of the argument you will most likely go to. Do you want to stay on the safe zone and write positively for a topic that you like? Or are you the kind of person who wants to challenge a certain idea? Whichever side you are on, what is most important is that it will propel you into forming solid ideas that will define the context of your essay.

2. Research about the topic. Essay writing is not all about giving your take on the matter. Well, you have to give your idea about it but you have to base it around truths from credible sources.
